III. SHORT ESSAY

This allows you to demonstrate your skills and distinguish yourself as an individual. Please provide your answers to the following questions. You may use English or Filipino in accomplishing this part.

1. What pushed you to apply for the REBOOT Program? (max. 200 words)

2. Share with us your experiences/ background in doing community work, if any. (max. 150 words)

3. Can you commit to a fourteen-month capacity development program? What are the possible reasons that will hinder you from fully participating in the program? (max. 150 words)

IV. LONG ESSAY

This allows you to express your views and beliefs with more flexibility. You may use English or Filipino in accomplishing this part. You have two options in accomplishing this part: either a 1-2 page written essay or a 5-8 minute video essay for each topic:

TOPIC 1 – What is your personal conception of an ideal energy transition in the Philippines?

While you may base your essay on existing definitions of the energy transition, you are free to express your own perspective of how the energy transition should look like. Elaborate on your justifications and motivations on why that, for you, is the ideal energy transition.

TOPIC 2 – What role do you want to take to contribute to the Philippine energy transition?

Share with us your envisioned role in the energy transition. Please discuss why you want to take this role. Please also discuss the core competencies that make you fit for that role, and your plans for personal development to make yourself more capable of handling that role.
